THE OPENING OF THE BAZAAR

In the McAdoo Building, on East Market Street

THINGS TO SELL--THINGS TO SEE

Gifts, Refreshments, Fruits, Bric-a-Brac, the Greensboro Orchestra and the Ladies.

The Christmas Bazaar that nearly everybody is talking about and that everybody is going to see, opened up in the McAdoo building, on East Market street, this morning and is well worth going to see—only remember that if you go to see you will remain to buy. It is a snare so cunningly set that, be he never so wary, the wayward masculine member of the race is sure to fall into it.

One of the windows is devoted to a most marvellous and bewildering display of dolls which the writer will be excused from attempting to describe by reason of small experience.

There are four booths—Spring, Summer, Autumn and Winter—each beautifully and appropriately decorated, which is most beautiful it is hard to tell and would be still more risky. In each booth there are things to sell (that is what a bazaar is for, you know) and there are people to sell them (another feature usual at bazaars) and the prices are reasonabl (a very unusual feature of bazaars) and therefore everybody that goes buys and the coffers will be swamped in a wave of prosperity.

What is proving one of the best features of the bazaar is the "Corner of Curios" under the management of Mrs. Devenish and Miss Schenck who have arranged the most unique display ever seen in Greensboro and one which is both amusing and instructive. It must be seen to be appreciated.

The Summer booth offers for sale those airy and delightful things that always go with the Summer season: also ices, cakes and like refreshments.

The Spring booth has for sale bric-a-brac, fancy articles, candies and other tempting things.

The Winter booth offers fancy articles and needlework, and makes a specialty of French drip coffee.

The Autumn booth has fruits, fortune telling and Boston tea.

The household department will dispose of articles of solid comfort, lasting and useful.

The refreshment department will serve lunches, dainty and appetizing, speaking from experience, at all hours.

The Greensboro orchestra has consented to furnish music and this company of obliging young gentlemen will supply the sweet strains for which it is noted.

Another New Citizen.

The Telegram welcomes to our city Mr. G. W. Koiner and family, of Staunton, Va., who will occupy Mrs. Doub's house, corner of West Gaston and Cedar streets, recently vacated by Mr. E. J. Stafford, who has moved into his new and beautiful home on West Washington street.

Mr. Koiner visited Greensboro recently and became so well pleased with the city that he has decided to move his family here and go into the produce and commission business. He has our best wishes for success.

Baby Between Mother and Jail.

A four months' old baby stood between its mother and prison last night in police court. The mother had been found guilty of drunkenness and disorderly conduct but the mayor did not have the heart to put mother and baby in jail, neither could he separate them so he told the woman to go her way.—Winston Journal.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News from Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU,
HIGH POINT, N. C., Dec. 16, '97.

Yesterday evening, at the home of J. H. Johnson in Jamestown, just befor the hour of 6 o'clock, a concourse of friends had gathered to witness the marriage of O. E. Kearns to Miss Effie B. Johnson. A large number of friends were present from Raleigh, Pomona, Greensboro, Jonesboro and High Point.

Promptly at 6 o'clock the groom was led down stairs by Rev. J. R. Scroggs and entered the parlor and there the couple were made man and wife. After congratulations and wishes for a long, happy and prosperous life the company were ushered into the dining room, where a table was weighted down with good things to eat.

Various and numerous were the elegant presents received.

Misses Clara Cox, Bertha Snow, of this city, and Annie Tomlinson, of Archdale, left this morning for Guilford College to attend the Junior Exhibition tonight.

Henry Donnell and Isaac Welborn had a difficulty yesterday in which Donnell was struck across the head with a club by Welborn, making quite a gash. Welborn escaped.

Misses Annie and Kate Ragan, of Archdale, spent yesterday in the city.

J. O. Redding, who has been attending school at Guilford College, passed through today enroute to his home at Hoover Hill to spend the holidays.

W. P. Fife, Misses Marsh, Hattie and Minnie Grimes, of Thomasville, were here last night.

W. C. Jones spent yesterday in the "City of Flowers" on business.

S. Bryant, of Randleman, came in on the vestibule this morning and left for his home later in the day.

Dr. A. E. Frazier left for Asheboro this morning to attend a marriage.

W. P. Eagan left this morning for Greensboro.

Cy. Wheeler, of Washington, came home to spend the holidays with his parents.

Let Them All Go.

In order that all the children in town may have a chance to attend the big concert given by the "Clara Schumann Ladies Orchestra," Manager Blackburn has arranged with them to give a school children's matinee Monday evening at 3 o'clock. The price for school children at this matinee has been fixed at 25 cents. Adults will be charged regular price, 75 cents. Let the children all go out and witness the only and greatest musical attraction of the kind that ever visted this part of the country. Eighteen artists on the stage at one time.

Seats on sale at Gardner's for Monday night.

A Pleasant Occasion.

Miss Grace Crocker pleasantly entertained a number of her friends at her home, on South Elm street, last evening, the occasion being the anniversary of her fifteenth birthday.

After an hour spent in the enjoyment of music and games, refreshments were served in the parlor from handed trays.

Miss Crocker was the recipient of a number of pretty and appropriate gifts. The event was a most delightful one.

Normal College Holiday.

The Normal College will suspend for the holidays on next Thursday morning though some of the students will leave on Wednesday night. Most of the young ladies will go home and only a few of the teachers will remain at the institution. The faculty will be scattered from New York to Florida and the students from "Cherokee to Currituck." School resumes on January 4th 1898.

Man With a History.

The Raleigh correspondent of the Charlotte Observer says:

Ex-Sheriff W. H. High died here today. He was sheriff of Wake for 16 years, ending in 1866, and it is said he was the last one in this state to carry out the order of a court to whip a prisoner. He whipped him until a file of soldiers stopped the proceedings. He was in Col. Payne's First North Carolina Regiment during the war with Mexico and was also in the confederate service.

DEATH FROM HYDROPHOBIA.

Disease Supposed to Have Originated From a Cat Bite.

DR. ROBINSON ALSO BITTEN.

Little David Moore Was Bitten Three Weeks Ago and Died This Morning.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Guilford College, Dec. 16—David Moore, the seven-year-old son of Mrs. Moore, at this place died in great agony this morning. His death, under the peculiar circumstances attending it, has caused quite a sensation.

About three weeks ago the little fellow was petting a stray cat which had been there a day or two when suddenly the cat began acting strangely and jumped into his face and bit him over the eye.

The bite was not thought much about. About a week ago he was taken with a chill and on yesterday he grew worse, when Dr. Robinson was called in. After examination he announced that there was every symptom of hydrophobia. The little sufferer grew worse until death came to his relief this morning.

The sad and untimely affair has put Dr. Robinson in a rather uneasy frame of mind as he was bitten by the same cat a few days ago while handling it. The bite is on his ear. At present there is no indication of the dread disease attacking him but great anxiety is felt for him by his friends.

The interment of little David Moore will take place tomorrow. The family have the sincere sympathy of the whole community in this bereavement.

Off to the Reformatory.

Capt. J. George Hannah and J. D. McIver came up last evening from Raleigh, having in custody two negro youths en route to the National Reformatory at Washington.

One of them, Sam Willens, is from Goldsboro, and his crime is stealing mail from a postoffice box. By some oversight a prominent merchant left his key in the postoffice lock and the little negro found it and used it to extract mail from the box for some time before he was captured.

The other is from Powellsville, Bertie county, and was covicted of robbing the postoffice at that place. He is a mulatto boy and was clerk in the office under his sister, who is postmaster there. Registered packages were the next thing to 'possum and sweet 'taters and he couldn't resist the temptation. They were carried to Washington today.

Vacation at G. F. C.

President Dred Peacock says the G. F. C. girls will be free to leave for home after next Wednesday morning, and that but fifteen of them will take advantage of the opportunity.

Only two of the faculty will spend the holiday season here, the rest going home.

The school will resume work on the 3d of the new year.

Hunting by Rail.

J. S. Frick, valet and dogs arrived from Baltimore yesterday and are stopping at the Benbow. Mr. Frick is a globe trotter and gentleman of leisure and came south for a little sport. He and General Gill went down the Cape Fear road today on a special train and will spend some time bird shooting.

A Cheap Policy.

Harry C. Martin showed a Telegram man what seemed a very cheap life insurance policy. It was a twenty payment policy in the Traveller's Life Insurance Company written for a man 43 years old for $10,000, on which the premium was only $193.75 a year.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. 25c.

Holiday Rates.

Agents of the C. F. and Y. V. are authorized to sell round trip holiday tickets at the rate of 4 cents a mile one way. This is a rate of 2 cents a mile. Tickets to be sold December 22 to 25; also December 30, 31 and January 1, with extreme limit to January 4, 1898, good for continuous passage in each direction.

A PASSENGER TRAIN HELD UP.

The Man Who Did it Wanted $25, and He Got the Money.

The southbound local train on the Southern, which left Charlotte yesterday at 12:20 o'clock, was held up at Spartanburg for one hour in consequence of the arrest there of the engineer by the chief of police of that city. It appears that an ordinance was passed for the benefit of the sleepers of Spartanburg, prohibiting the blowing of locomotive whistles within the corporate limits of the town. The engineer of No. 11 was arrested on charge of violating this ordinance, the penalty of which is $25 a blow. With the engineer under arrest, Conductor Jones got to work on a wire with Capt. Ryder's office, while the postal clerks notified the mayor that he was engaged in a serious piece of business in obstructing the United States mails. engineer had put up a bluff about not going up town under arrest, and the chief of police had given him 15 minutes in which to pay the $25 fine or go to the lock-up. The mayor stood firm, and the result was that in the end the engineer paid over the fine, and the train was permitted to proceed, after a detention of one hour, during which time the passengers had become rather weary of the scenery about Spartanburg.—Charlotte Observer.

NEW NOMINATIONS

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Dec. 16.—The President today sent the following nominations to the Senate:

Joseph McKenna, of California, to be associate justice of the Supreme court of the United States.

BRYAN IN MEXICO.

Dividing Honors at the Capital with a Famous Bull Fighter.

City of Mexico, Dec. 15.—Mr. William Jennings Bryan spent a busy day here visiting points of interest about the city. He is the recipient of great attention at the hands of high Government officials and the American colony. His fine suite of rooms at the Hotel Sanz adjoin those of Luis Mazzantini, the celebrated Spanish bull fighter, who has just arrived here from Spain, and is to receive $5,000 for each performance.

He and Bryan have become warm friends, and the free silver orator will occupy the box of honor at Mazzantini's great bull fight on next Sunday. Of the two great men at the Hotel Sanz, the bull fighter receives the most marked attention of the Mexican people.

Robbed the Mails.

Sheriffs J. D. McIver, of Sanford, and J. G. Hannah, of Raleigh, spent the night in the city on the way to Washington. They have in charge Sam Wellions and Luther Wynne, recently convicted of robbing the mails at Goldsboro and Powellsville. The young criminals will be taken to Washington and placed in the reformatory instead of being sent to Sing Sing.

Snow White and The Dwarfs.

Miss Laura Doub's music class will give the operetta, "Snow White and The Dwarfs," Wednesday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, in Bogart's Hall, on December 22nd.

Snow White and The Dwarfs ask all, who are interested in music, to come to hear them. The plot, personce dramatis and price will appear later.

Haytians Enraged by Germans.

Port au Prince, Dec. 15.—The German schoolship Stein sailed for Havana today and the Charlotte for St. Thomas. There was a ball at the German legation last night, at which the national airs were played and speeches of a patriotic character made. The Haytian population was much enraged by the incident and Haytian guards insulted officers of the warships as they were returning to their vessels. A fight was narrowly averted.

Hrince Henry was in command of the vessel and she was saluted all along the line.

A Partial Success.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Silver City, N. M., Dec. 15.—Special Wells-Fargo officer, J. N. Tacker, assisted by Deputy United States Marshals under Cipriano Baca, last night captured the gang of train robbers who on last Thursday held up the Southern Pacific at Sterns Pass, Grant county, when one of the robbers was killed. The robbers, five in number, were surrounded in a cabin at Cushey's ranch, about twenty-five miles this side of the Mexican line, in eastern Arizona. They were taken completely by surprise and surrendered without a shot being fired. They were brought here and lodged in jail.

Facts Worth Studying.

If the Southern Stock-Mutual pays no larger dividends than the 20 per cent. now paid, and the business increases during the next seven years in the same ratio it has increased during the last three years, the actual saving for the ten years to policy-holders in North and South Carolina will be $194,822.00, and to the policy-holders in Greensboro alone, $26,237.00. Besides this the Company's assets (reinsurance reserve and surplus) represented by still larger figures will be kept at home and invested in the state. What better investment can the public make than by upholding an institution like this?

AN UNINTENTIONAL MISTAKE.

In the Christian Advocate of yesterday we find the following:

The Evening Telegram of Greensboro very justly makes the complaint that no minister of the Gospel has yet visited a certain prisoner of the county jail, the said prisoner being under sentence of death for the crime of murder. No fact or circumstance can justify any indifference on the part of the ministry toward the unfortunate in prison.

However, supposing that through the instrumentality of some preacher, the prisoner referred to by the Telegram should profess conversion on the gallows should express his perfect assurance that his sins had been forgiven and that he was going to heaven would not the newspapers with but few exceptions make light of the man's professions? The point we make is this. The newspapers while often giving the churches some wholesome advice often neutralize the same, especially in the way of teaching that the Father's love is limited.

The Advocate is mistaken; it was our esteemed contemporary, the Daily Record, which administered the rebuke and which in turn was mistaken, as some of our local ministers had called upon the prisoner in question. We corrected the statement a few days ago.

The Advocate, of course, was speaking in general terms in saying the press teaches "that the Father's love is limited."

The Telegram, wishing to every man "sweetness and light" here, and peace "after life's fitful fever," impugns no man's claim to forgiveness. It, therefore, published a letter from the prisoner in which he professed hope, and made no comment thereon. Even a condemned murderer has rights.

The town council of Mokatas, Kan., is up in arms, panoplied and arrayed for the conflict. It has declared that a "Hot Time in the Old Town" must no longer be sung or whistled on the streets. The indications are that the temperature of the ancient burough will not show a marked fall by reason of the ordinance. The Kansan's heart is so jubilant over the wheat crop and defunct mortgages that it must find relief in song or bust. What hymn of praise could more befit the great State of Mary Ellen and Whiskers Peffer and Sockless Jerry than this noble gem of the musical composer? It is said that half the people of Kansas are either singing or whistling it—let the other half join in till the sage brush sways in unison and the jack rabbit dances in tune.

With the bankers and cotton growers both devising plans down in Atlanta to save the country its salvation may be considered as good as assured. Perhaps if the country is not duly saved they will compromise on "something equally as good."

Blanco's invitation to all Cubans to return suggests a query as to whether there is a Spanish version of "walk into my parlor, said the spider to the fly."

John Wanamaker has bought $600 worth of cats and it is probable that his business will shortly be enlarged by the addition of a sausage department.

There is always one marked characteristic of a populist—he will tell you anything in the whole round world he may happen to know about his own affairs or other people's, and when his facts are exhausted he comes to the rescue with an imagination rendered agile by much saving of his country and devious devisings of "feenanchul refawms." State Librarian Cobb was asked where he was to get his 60,000 populist votes and he replied "they will come up whenever needed." They just sprout, you know, about election times. There is a very pretty old story about one Jason sowing dragon's teeth from which armed men sprang up, but neither song nor story tells what to sow in order to sprout a populist. Can it be that the affidavits Mr. Marion Butler has been sowing will sprout 'em? Will John R. Smith or Mr. Mewboorne put in a few acres of populists on the penitentiary farm? Did Keeper Burns pull up the choice young shoots on the capitol grounds to make room for more populists? With all due respect to Librarian Cobb the only solution we can see to the riddle is in a new variety of cabbage.

For the benefit of both it cannot be too much emphasized that the southern white man is the best friend of the southern negro: that the professions and protestations of our northern brethren are strictly of the sounding brass and tinkling cymbal order. One of the latest instances of this came to light at Hiawatha, Kanasas. In the grand army cemetery at that place a colored man who was a member of the post, was buried near to the grave of A. A. Holmes, former commander of the post. This so incensed his relatives that they disinterred his remains and buried them in a private cemetery and a large number of whites did likewise. This is the fraternal love that the negro may expect out of the south. It is time that he was coming to a realization of it.

Representative Norton, of Ohio, declared in the House that "Most of the men on the pension rolls are perjurers." He wished to change "most" to "many" and the privilege was denied him. He should have stood by his declaration. It can be proved in cold figures. There are at present over 900,000 names on the pension rolls, while the best statistics obtainable make the number of living federal soldiers less than 100,000. Mr. Norton hit the nail squarely on the head. It is a fraud and a steal in comparison with which the credit Mobelier and Panama affairs are but cases of petty larceny.

Thg swapping of offices by Commissioner Mewboorne and Penitentiary Superintendent Smith is as pretty an instance of politics as we have "them" in these days as could be found. Mr. Smith, having rattled around futilely in the superintendency of the penitentiary, is to have the privilege of trying on all the offices at the capitol until he gets one to fit him. Probably an office that is too big produces corns on the political sagacity of the incumbent. We would suggest that in such case Mr. Smith be poulticed with "one night corn cure."

Corbett-Fitzsimmons Fight.

Carson, Nev., Dec. 14—A Livingston paper received a communication from Dan Stuart stating that a fight is being arranged between Corbett and Fitzsimmons, to be held in Carson City in July, 1898, adding that definite arrangements would be completed within a fortnight.

Quality First

Price Second

Quality should always be considered FIRST in purchasing food supplies. The few cents difference in the price of a first-class article and a poor article would hardly be noticed in the monthly account—So don't deceive yourself by trying to economize in purchasing Cheap Goods—they are dearer in the end.

For nearly twenty-seven years we have been supplying the people of this city and surrounding country with groceries, and our motto has always been:

"First-class Goods at a Living Profit."

Come in and see what an attractive display of Christmas Goods we have.

Croker at the Capitol.

Washington, Dec. 14.—Richard Croker, the Tammany "boss," arrived in Washington this morning and at once went into seclusion.

The object of his visit is said by some to be to consult privately over Tammany affairs. By others it is said to relate to Pacific railroad legislation, Representative McClellan, who alone was supposed to know about the boss' visit, put on a mysterious air and would not say even whether his chief was in Washington.

Sheehan and Coler have both been in Washington, but it is announced that both left last night.

To Save Sinking Ships.

Chicago, Dec. 14—C. F. Sultmeyer says he has solved the problem of saving a vessel and its passengers after an accident to its hull.

There was a great hole in the side of the schooner A. J. Mowery when a test was made today in the Chicago river. Volumes of water began to rush in. A small cord was pulled from the railing on the deck, a roll of canvas fell down and the flow was checked.

The inventor calls his apparatus a bandage. It is made of thick canvas, and is stored in sections like a curtain along the side of the ship. In each fold is a longitudinal wire to impart weight and stiffness.

The Grandest Remedy.

Mr. R. B. Greeve, merchant, of Chilhowie, Va., certifies that he had consumption, was given up to die, sought all medical treatment that money could procure, tried all cough remedies he could hear of, but got no relief; spent many nights sitting up in a chair; was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery, and was cured by use of two bottles. For past three years has been attending to business, and says Dr. King's New Discovery is the grandest remedy ever made, as it has done so much for him and also for others in his community. Dr. King's New Discovery is guaranteed for coughs, colds and consumption. It don't fail. Trial bottles free at C E. Holton's drug store.

Something to Know.

It may be worth something to know that the very best medicine for restoring the tired out nervogs system to a healthy vigor is Electric Bitters. This medicine is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centres in the stomach, gently stimulates the liver and kidneys, and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood. Electric Bitters improves the appetite, aids digestion, and is pronounced by those who have tried it as the very best blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it. Sold for 50c or $1.00 per bottle at C, E. Holton's drug store.

"My, that made me jump!" is such a common expression, and it comes from such a common cause—poor blood and from starved nerves.

Why suffer the tormenting terror of nervousness, when you could be permanently cured by

Johnston's Sarsaparilla

QUART BOTTLE.

It acts upon the blood more healthfully and speedily than any other blood purifier.
